GERMANS' TRIBUTE TO WERNER KOCH

Speeches Laudatory to Life of Late Journalist.

Germans and Americans from every station in life—the wealthy and the lowly, the diplomatist and the laborer—thronged Saengerbund Hall last night to do honor to the memory of Werner Koch, publisher of the Washington Journal, a German weekly, who died March 8 last. Although nearly eighty years of age, the German printer worked at the case in his unpretentious newspaper office, 710 Sixth street northwest, every day until two weeks before he died.

Every German society in the District was represented by delegates as witnesses of the deep sorrow which is felt in every German home at the loss to this community of a man of the sterling character of Werner Koch. One of the speakers said that Mr. Koch contributed more effective services for the consolidation of the Germans of Washington and vicinity and to their obtaining public esteem and respect than any other agency, and that notwithstanding his many years of unceasing toil he had but little to show of earthly goods.

"He worked for German culture and to raise them in the public esteem, and his labor has been successful beyond all expectations. For himself he gained but little, so far as money is concerned, but he gained the satisfaction of knowing that he was giving his best for the furtherance of a good cause."

Among those present were George W. Spier, Dr. G. M. Kober, Gustav Landsburg, Frank Claudy, Simon Wolf, Dr. E. A. Sellhausen, William F. Gude, John Waldmann, Fred. Imhof, Christian Heurich, Rudolph Saur, Jacob Karr, Charles Dismer, L. Exel, Louis Kettler, George G. Seibold, Albert Lepper, Kurt Voelcker, Gustav Bender, E. F. Mann, W. Ruckdaschel, John Wachsen, J. Lechner, H. Schultze, A. Levy, F. Scheuermann, Martin Wiegand, and others.

Delegations were present from the following societies: United German Societies, German Orphan Asylum Society, Veterans of the Eighth Battalion, Arion Gesang Verein, Germania Maennerchor, Verein Baden, Verein Bayern, Hessen-Deutschland, Germania Germania, Schweizerischer Beneficial Society, Ocasia (Bund, Deutscher Beneficial Society, Platt-Deutscher Verein, Columbia, Brewers' Beneficial Society, Columbia, Bund, German-American Beneficial Society, German Unterstuetzungsbund, Washington Hain, No. 1, A. WOULD DISSOLVE AN ASSOCIATION

Petition Is Filed by Albert Lee Darthard.

Albert Lee Darthard yesterday instituted proceedings, through Attorneys Wilton J. Lombert and Rudolph H. Teutman, for the dissolution of the American Fraternity Association and to compel Mary E. Gaegler to turn over to receivers certain property known as lot 5, in square 318, which, it is claimed, is held by the defendant, as trustee, for the benefit of policy holders of the association.

It is alleged that Darthard, who is a resident of Leighton, Ala., became a policy holder in the corporation in January, 1909, and that he received a policy of insurance for the sum of $1,000. He has received no benefits from the insurance company, and alleges that the company has practically discontinued business. It is claimed that out of the money received from policy holders investments in property were made, the title to which was taken in the name of other parties, and the discovery is asked as to what property really belongs to the association.

JUSTICE WRIGHT'S THREAT RECALLED

Trial of Negro Charged with Purse-snatching.

William Dutch, negro, charged with snatching the pocketbook of Harriet Nevitt, on October 14 last, was placed on trial yesterday afternoon before a jury in Justice Wright's court.
The case will be followed with considerable interest in view of the well-known attitude of Justice Wright toward convicted purse snatchers. At a recent trial of a negro who was convicted of purse snatching Justice Wright was reported as saying he would make an example of every negro convicted of stealing the purse of a white woman. A protest against this alleged declaration was framed by a number of negro lawyers and churchmen, and a bill was introduced in Congress asking for the impeachment of Justice Wright. Nothing, however, has come of it, and in all likelihood nothing will ever come of it.
Attorney Patterson, who represents Dutch, closely questioned the jurors as to whether they would be influenced in giving a verdict by reason of the fact that Dutch is a negro. One negro juror was challenged by Attorney Patterson and a white man was substituted, who, after some questioning by the prisoner's attorney, passed muster.
